

Thursday, March 1 7:30pm - Auditorium

Art Matters with Jane Blair: IMPRESSIONISM

Artists like Monet, Renoir and Degas defied convention and changed the way the whole world looked at art. Like a stone dropped into a still pond, the ripples from this revolutionary style of painting spread out, influencing a whole new generation of artists. Join us for a close look at many of the paintings that moved the world into the modern era.

Monday, March 5 3:00pm - Parlor

Flags of the World

Caroline Boynton will discuss her collection of world flags currently being showcased in the glass cabinet in the Parlor.

Tuesday, March 6 11:00am- 1:00pm - Commons

Winding River Trunk Show

Stop by the Commons and treat yourself to something special and beautiful, crafted by Winding River Clothing, a Needham based, family run business known for their high quality Artisan reversible fabrics. They will be bringing a fine selection of reversible jackets, coats, sweaters, raincoats and handbags for your shopping pleasure. And, as a special bonus, they are giving their North Hill neighbors a 25% discount as well as reducing item prices just for us!

Every Tuesday in March 11:30am - 12:15pm - Bridge Room

Duplicate Bridge Classes led by Andrew Hanes: Tough Bridge Decisions - every bidding system has its shortcomings

These classes will highlight deficiencies in Standard American bidding then introduce you to how the experts handle the problem hands. Developing better judgment is key to becoming a better player. Cost is $10 cash per session.

Thursday, March 8

2:00pm - Auditorium

Artificial Intelligence and the Future of Work presented by Matissa Hollister (Community Connection)

We have heard a lot about artificial intelligence over the past few years and its looming threat to replace our jobs. What is artificial intelligence and how does it work? What are some of the challenges faced when trying to train computers to replace human decision-making, including ethical issues? We will explore these questions and discuss the societal impacts, both short and long term, of computers replacing workers. Matissa is a professor of Organizational Behavior at McGill University's Desautels Faculty of Management, and the daughter of residents, Rob and Valerie Hollister.

Thursday, March 8

7:30pm - Auditorium

Presentation by Boston Symphony Orchestra Piccolo player, Cynthia Meyers (Community Connection)

Please join Boston Symphony Orchestra Piccolo player, Cynthia Meyers, for a talk and presentation on the history of the orchestra's flute section - from the early 20th century to the present. Cynthia Meyers joined the Boston Symphony Orchestra as its piccolo player in the autumn of 2006, occupying the Evelyn and C. Charles Marran Chair.

Friday, March 9

1:30pm - Auditorium

Wooden Ships and Iron Men...The USS Constitution and the War of 1812 presented by Bob Begin

Bob Begin will explore the causes of the War of 1812 and the role the Constitution played as she engaged ships of the world's most powerful empire at that time, England's Royal Navy.

Tuesday, March 13

7:30pm - Auditorium

The Apollo Club

Founded in 1871, The Apollo Club is the second oldest continuously active men's singing group in the US. led by their Musical Director Steven Lipsitt, the club's 25 members will perform a "My Fair Lady" Medley, Songs by Stephen Foster, Around the World Favorites, American Spirituals and Love Songs.

Wednesday, March 14

3:30pm - Conference Suite

50 Shades of Grape presented by Marianne Haldoupis (Community Connection)

This class will provide a foundation of knowledge that will help in your future enjoyment of wine and will enhance your wine experience while you learn the basics in evaluating wines. Class will be structured around tasting wines from major producing areas. Join us to learn how to distinguish between wine styles, grape varieties, and regions. In addition, there will be information and ideas on pairing wine with food. Marianne is Executive Assistant to CEO, Rob Fallon! Sign up with the Concierge. Cost is $10.

Thursday, March 15

7:30pm - Auditorium

Dr Andrew Budson: Seven Steps to Managing Your Memory (Resident Request)

With more than 41 million Americans over the age of 65 in the United States, the question becomes how much (or perhaps what type) of memory loss is to be expected as one gets older and what should trigger a visit to the doctor. Wellesley native, Dr. Andrew Budson, has written a book, Seven Steps to Managing Your Memory, which features clinical vignettes and character-based stories that provide real-life examples of how to successfully manage age-related memory loss.

Friday, March 16

2:00pm - Auditorium

Sullivan School of Irish Dance

A joyful yearly St. Patrick's Day tradition, these talented performers, ages 8 to 20, appear in gorgeous costumes and wigs to perform traditional "set" dances. Join us for this festive program!

Saturday, March 17

1:00pm - Auditorium

Always in Season (Community Connection)

Come celebrate St. Paddy's Day with the music and traditions of the Emerald Isle with Always in Season, the band that wowed us at our Coffee in the Commons last December! Steeped in Celtic, bluegrass and folk traditions, the band features Jo Miller on fiddle, Lois Francello on Irish harp, along with Howard Frutkoff and Joel Sklar on guitar. The band will get you dancing with toe-tapping jigs and singing along to the lovely melodies of favorites like 'Danny Boy' and 'The Wild Rover'.

Sunday, March 18

5:15pm - Auditorium

Music – With Class! Presented by Jack Craig: Songs of Spring

Whether it's blue skies, robins, flowers, rainbows, or the occasional Spring love song – every song in this program celebrates the wonders of spring.

Tuesday, March 20

10:30am - Art Studio

Paint Silk Sun Catchers

Welcome the first day of spring by joining this fun silk painting workshop led by Nicole Donson where you will paint beautiful catchers to adorn your windows. Learn how to mix colors, work with resists (faux batik) and sprinkle salt on the wet dyes to watch them create beautiful, dynamic starburst effects. The instructor will provide all materials. Sign up with the Concierge. Cost is $5.

Thursday, March 22

1:00pm - Fitness Center Aerobic Studio

Health Talk: Tension Tamers for Neck & Shoulders

Suzanne Brand, OTR/CHL from Beth Israel will give an interactive talk where you will learn exercises to tame the tensions in your head, neck, and shoulder regions. Too much time on screens, ipads, keyboards and lack of movement are causing stress on our necks and shoulders. Reset, stretch and strengthen muscles in the upper, middle and lower back.

Thursday, March 22

2:00pm - Conference Suite

What's the Essence of the Passover Seder?

Please join Rabbi Carl Perkins of Temple Aliyah as he explores the two-thousand-year old ritual known as the Passover Seder. What is it designed to accomplish? Why is it structured the way it is? What did it mean when it was created? And what does it mean today?

Thursday, March 22

7:30pm - Auditorium

Understanding Our World Lecture: Your Army and Our National Security Challenges

Samuel Saine, a Colonel in the United States Army and a Fellow in the Weatherhead Scholars Program at Harvard will speak. A full bio will be placed in your in-house mailbox.

Sunday, March 25

5:00pm - Auditorium

New England Conservatory Concert - program TBD

Tuesday, March 27

7:30pm - Auditorium

Krisanthi Pappas Returns!

Jazz and cabaret singer and songwriter Krisanthi Pappas will play piano and sing jazz standards, Broadway show tunes and her award-winning original songs. Krisanthi is a delightful performer - come and see for yourself.

THE LIFECARE CHOICE IN YOUR HOME